

International PET Resales Privacy Policy

International PET Resales (herein IPR) recognize the importance of protecting the User's privacy in the Website and, accordingly, have developed a Privacy Policy, of which the User is hereby notified, so that the User may freely and voluntarily decide on whether he wishes to provide IPR with any personal data which may be required of him or obtained from him when requesting any of the services offered by IPR on its Website. IPR reserve the right to modify unilaterally, at any time and without prior notice, their Privacy Policy in order to bring it into line with the legislation in force from time to time.

The data gathered or collected from the User are solely data relating to the User's professional and business activities, although in order to use some Website services, Users must previously provide certain personal data to IPR (first name and last names, e-mail address, etc.) which IPR will process by automated means in order to maintain any contractual relationship with IPR, and to manage, administer, provide, expand and enhance the services offered on the Website and customize them in accordance with the User's preferences, and inform the User of any marketing campaigns that may be conducted and be of interest to the User.

The User expressly authorizes IPR the right to transfer his personal data to third-party individuals and/or legal entities with a view to keeping him informed of products or services that may be of interest to him.

The Website contains cookies" that enable IPR to obtain a set of data on Users, such as the parts of the Website visited previously by the User or his product and service preferences.

If the User wishes, he can block access by "cookies" to his hard drive by configuring his computer browser to display an onscreen warning against accepting "cookies" or block the installation of "cookies" on his hard drive, although in such case, the Website may not work properly for technical reasons.

The Website does not contain any information addressed to minors and, accordingly, IPR will not deliberately gather personal data on minors, and will, if appropriate, delete any item of data that may include data on minors when they become aware of such circumstance. Pursuant to the legislation in force, the User may access, rectify, cancel and object to the file containing his personal data by writing to the following address:
